Gary,

The attached table includes a summary of results for the non-ER waste samples collected. There is a separate tab for the stormwater samples.

The waste samples were a little tricky. The header shows the matrix that we indicated on the COC. The analysis categories on the far left show the matrix as it was analyzed by the lab. If you are not concerned with the matrix as it was analyzed by the lab, then we can combine the analyses on the left by result unit. All of the TCLP analyses are combined and are at the bottom of the table.

Let me know what you think.

Kristie
